It at all surpreing if there are many heline of layers before the presthe first race Pater was played while Oyama and Optician were also bree ways. It was the same state of the second event when Clements, Then Inquisitor was literally the boards in the third, although backed off the boards in the third, although the books took in big money on Vino. Quorum was heavily played to show. The success of Keator in the Patchogue cost the ring a good round sum, but the layers won to the race, as a ton of money was bet on Aeronaut, Shot Gun, Toots Mook and Prince Frederick. Frank Farrell, Joe Cassidy. Pat Keenan and the Sullivans bet on Keator, who was left at the post in his previous race. If he had not an outside position at the barrier and his friends would have probably pulled off a memorable killing. Keator had a world of speed and his time was only threefifths of a second behind the track record hung up by Endurance by Right in 1901. He was entered to be sold for $1,500 and Dave Slean, no relation to Tod, bid him up to $2,500, Weir bidding him in with the usual e. Keator's share of the stakes was when Benevolent came home. This colt had worked a mile in 1:40 and was up against a cheap lot. Probably $20,000 was sent to the books from the clubhouse alone, while every book in the pavilion was loaded up with wise money until Benevolent was no better than even money a moment before the gate went up Angler and Jack McKeon, who ran second and third, were played place and show for a bunch. Luretta and Consuelo II. were also backed, but in a desultory manner.

Another crushing blow was delivered by the talent in the last race, when Bat Masterson won. He opened at even money, but the money came in an avalanche until many layers refused to take any more, even at 1 to 2 Computer, who ran second, was tremendously played for the place, while the third horse, Charles G. Gates, was backed all over the ring to show. It is estimated that since Monday the books in the big ring have lost an average of $10,000 each, or about $700,000 in all, as 100 layers are doing business on a large scale. Not in many years have the layers experienced such hard times, and they are on the verge of a panic. Those that have the capital can weather the present storm, but the others are sure to go to the wall. Meanwhile the racegoing public is in high feather and is pushing the good luck to the limit.

John E. Madden sold his two-year-old Bat Masterson, by Frankfort—Vanessa, yesterday to two young Wall Street men, M. L. and A. C. Schwartz, who paid $20,000 for the youngster, who ran in the name of M. L. Schwartz in the last race. The brothers wen him out, too, for they placed a $25,000 wager on him. They have been patrons of the turf for some time, but it was not until recently that they decided to follow the example set by the Raineys of Cleveland in getting together a stable: The Messrs. Schwartz have engaged Fred Burlew to train

Bad actors had an inning yesterday. The fle. I that went to the post for the Patchogue Stakes was filled with them and they caused a delay of thirteen minutes before the field was sent away. Shot Gun, Nostromo, Andria, Jocund, Incantation and Ballotta were the chief offenders. O'Neill was thrown by Joeund and received a kick on the knee which put him out of it. J. Jones was substituted, riding five pounds over weight. Shot Gun also threw L. Williams, but the latter was not hurt. In the last race James R. Keene's Pierrot threw Sewell twice on the way to the post and then started to run away. A quick witted stable hand opened the paddock gate as the colt rushed back toward the judges stand and the youngster trotted through it as meek as a lamb. Then he was mounted by Sewell again and was dragged Desert Chief, the English steeplechaser who was recently brought to this country by the Brownleigh Park Stable, got a try out at Belmont Para yesterday morning, and the way he performed convinced the cross-country sharps that he will take a beating in some of the big timber topping events this year. R Bradley's Charles G. Gates, a colt by Bridgewater-Chicora II., was one of the clubhouse tips for the last race. John W. others in that set bet on him straight and third. Bradley said that he would win if he did not bolt. The elder Gates also had a small bet on Brother Frank in the stake event, just for old time's sake. Brother Frank when owned by Boots Durnell last Year was the medium for a big plunge at Brighton Beach, Gates alone betting $40,000 on him. The colt was sold recently to John R. Townsend. He was quoted at as much as 50 to 1 yesterday but for half a mile it looked as if he would do something. Previous Billali, Cleophus, Satin Slipper, Meehanus, Himself, Cameron, Plater, Ascension and Right and True.

In spite of the fact that H. T. Griffin has made a business of boosties the winners of celling races nobody bid up his colt Clements, the winner of the second race, who was enered to be sold for only $500.

Pater would have been more heavily backed in the first race except for the fact that the wise guys did not think he could win with 222 pounds. He gave fourteen pounds to Battleaxe, fifteen to Oyama, nineteen to Optician and so on down to Caprice, who optician and so on down to Caprice, who who was in receipt of thirty-two. The Newcastle Stable's Inquisitor, even money favorite in the handlesp at a mile and seventy yards, was returned a comparatively easy winner. Miler, who had the legue, got away running and was never caught, the Inspector B, colt taking the race by three parts of a length in 1:e3 3. The Pachegue Stable's Vino, played down to 9 to 5, stood a hard drive and ran into the place with a similar margin over P. J. Dwyer's Quorum, 7 to 1. Valagai ghased the witner for nearly three-quarters of a mile and then backed up. The Oneck Stable's Benevotent, 8 to 5 avorite, made all the running in the fifth race, at a mile and a sixteenth, winning easily by a length from Woodford Clay's Angler, 6 to 1, with Jack McKeon, 6 to 1, two lengths away. Consuelo B., 4 to 1, was outrun. The time was 1:47 3-5.

Bat Masterson, pounded down to 3 to 6 from even money, was a cinch in the last race, for two-year-olds, five furlongs. He made a run away of it and came home on the bit, with Miller up, and R. A. Rainey's Computer, 3 to 1, second choice, three lengths behind. E. R. Bradley's Charles G. Gates, backed down to 4, was half a dozen lengths back. The race was run in 1,00 3-5. The attendance was about 12,000. The summaries:

The New York Americans and the Detroits had a regular slam bang batting season up on the hill yesterday. The locals got away with the game and incidentally broke the tie that bound them to the Detroiters in third place. For a couple of unings the air was full of singles and other hits, and when the tiriffithites had apparently put the same away by pounding out five runs in one inning off Wild Bill Donovan the Tigers turned on Noodles Hahp and rended him. He was derrietted, and only a couple of wonderfully good ontches by Keeler saved Clarkson from losing the game. In the seventh the New Yorks made a single, a double and then three triples. Detroit in the following season tound Hahn for four singles and a triple in that order.

triples. Detroit in the following session found Hahn for four singles and a triple in that order.

Jack Warner, the ever popular, got a great hand when he came to the bat and responded by cracking out a single each time. A peaky foul tip caught him on the hand in the fourth inning and he had to quit. Paine took his place. There was another casualty of somewhat less note in the eighth, when Coughlin, sliding to third in completing his triple, spiked Laporte's hand and ripped his breeches so that he had to make a speedy retreat behind the stand for repairs. He came back attired in a pair that belonged to so me one who is shorter in the legs by a good deal than is Coughlin.

The Detroits played errorless baseball, while the New Yorks made two misplays. Williams muffed a pop up in the first inning, losing the ball in the sun, and Moriarity dropped a long fly that he had to chase to get under but muffed squarely. The visitors played lively baseball and made two capid double plays that choked off runs for a surety, McGuire was at a loss before Dongvan's pitching and fanned three times, twice with men on bases. He got one hit, however, that counted in the sixth inning, although he was caught in a double right afterward.

DOHERTYS TO DEFEND CUP. Noted Tennis Players Will Contest Double S. H. Smith for Singles. Special Cable Despatch to THE SUN.

LONDON, May 24.-The English lawn ten nis Association met to-day and chose as defenders of the Dwight F. Davis international cup the Doherty brothers in the doubles and H. L. Doherty and S. H. Smith in the singles, with A. W. Gore as reserve. President Smith sent a telegram to Queens-town addressed to Beals C. Wright, sugtown addressed to Beals C. Wright, suggesting that the American team come straight to London in order to get as much practice as possible at Wimbledon, where the challenge round will be played, as France and Austria will probably seratch. France wished to have their match, previously assigned to Liverpool, played in London. For this reason the French team is not expected to fulfil its engagement. There is to be a tournament in Prague at the same time that the Al strians should play here, and they are likely to remain at home.

N. E. Brookes found himself at the last moment unable to leave Australia. The Australians will therefore have 10 depend upon A. T. Wilding, the New Zealander, and Poldevin. America and England are almost certain to become finalists for the cup.
